The decision contains the reasons for the initialization of the procedure, the name of the liquidator and the manner of conducting the liquidation procedure, as well as the data on the change of the name of the Association, in the way that the remark "in (the process of) liquidation" is added to the name of the Association and entered into the Register of Associations.

Article 72.

With the initialization of the liquidation procedure, the governing bodies and the person authorized to represent the Association cease to have authority.

Article 73.

The Liquidator is obliged to conduct the liquidation procedure in accordance with provisions of the Law on Associations.

Article 74.

Based on the received report on the completed liquidation procedure, the competent office issues the decision on the deletion of the Association from the Register of Associations, unless the Association has outstanding debts.

Article 75.

Exceptionally, in the cases referred to in Article 66, paragraph 1, items 1, 2 and 5 of this Statute, the liquidation procedure isn't going to be executed if the majority of all members of the Management Board make a statement to the notary public, stating that the Association isn't operational, that all of the Association's obligations have been fulfilled and that the remaining assets of the Association have been distributed in accordance with the provisions of Article 53. of the Law on Associations.

The request for registration of termination of the Association, by a shortened procedure, is submitted to the competent office by the person authorized to represent the Association, or one of the members of the Management Board of the Association.

In the cases referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, members of the Association who made the statement shall jointly be liable for the obligations of the Association for five years from the date of deletion of the Association from the Register of Associations.

Article 76.

In the event of termination of the Association and upon settlement of the creditor and the costs of liquidation, court and other proceedings, the assets are donated to associations, institutions or foundations which have the same or similar statutory goals and on the basis of the decision of the General Assembly.

If for any reason the Assembly of the Association cannot hold a meeting and decide on the matters from the previous paragraph, the remaining assets are acquired by the City of Pula.

The Association has no right to share the assets of the Association between its founders, members of the Association, persons authorized to represent, employees or persons affiliated with them

IX. SETTLING DISPUTES AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST WITHIN THE ASSOCIATION

Article 77.

If there is a dispute between members of the Association, which hinders or prevents the work of the Association and can't be resolved through the procedures prescribed by this Statute, members of the Association must try to resolve this dispute by mediation.

Article 78.

Members of the Association in all matters of interest and importance to the Association must act honestly, fairly, conscientiously, responsibly and impartially, while retaining their own credibility and the credibility of the Association.

In implementing the activities of the Association, members may not place their private interest above the interests of the Association.

Article 79.

In the event that the private interests of a member of the Association are in conflict with the interests of the Association, or when the private interest affects or may affect the impartial work of a member of the Association in performing the activities of the Association, the member who is in conflict of interest is obliged to inform the Management Board without delay and, if possible, be exempted from further work on the specific activity.

Article 80.

In case of doubt about a possible conflict of interest, any member of the Association may request an opinion of the Supervisory Board.

Social awards and acknowledgments

Article 81.

The Association can give awards and acknowledgments to its members, as well as to organizations and individuals for merit and achievements in environmental protection and for the contribution to the development of Green Istria.

The types of acknowledgments, the criteria and the manner of awarding the award is specified with an act by the Management Board.

X. TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 82.

The General Assembly interprets the provisions of this Statute.

Issues not regulated by this Statute may be regulated by other regulations of the Association.

Interpretation of other regulations of the Association is provided by the Management Board.

Article 83.

The General Assembly decides on all procedural-statutory issues not regulated by this Statute.

Article 84.

This Statute enters into force on the date of its adoption.

With the adoption of this Statute, the Statute of the Association adopted on August 26th 2004 ceases to be valid.
